Forever-never,

Dear Betsy—

I'm going to pester you to death! "Queenie" — See ya on Fayetteville St.
Love you,
Maggie

Dearest "Betsy",

tell you, but I should know you are dancing & drink the wet & will make everything a real manual.
We haven't: wait for Morehead, more fun!
"Grandfather" and every minute.

Love you, "Jit",
Anita

THIS, THE 1947 STAGE COACH of St. Mary's School and Junior College, was published by the Student Body under the direction of Gene Rose, Editor-in-Chief, and Adelaide Boylston Linehan, Business Manager. Dearest Betsy –
I guess this makes two of us angels – anyway I send you all the love in heaven –
Pullo

RICHARD GABRIEL STONE, Ph.D.

IN dedicating this year's STAGE COACH to Dr. Stone, we wish to strike a symbolic note. In this the first year of a new presidency, we stand between an old era and a new. We look back with justifiable satisfaction on one hundred-odd years of Saint Mary's, and from an observation of the wisdom, kindness, and vision with which Dr. Stone has administered his first year as president, we look forward to the future as a source of even greater pride.

We Arrive . . .

We Depart . . .

The Rev. Mr. I. Harding Hughes, A.B., B.D.

There is ample proof that Mr. Hughes' influence extends far beyond the mere conducting of services in the fact that each girl views him, not only with esteem and respect, but also with warm friendship.

St. Mary's remembers Mr. Stoughton with lasting affection and a deep sense of loss.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

STUDENT
OFFI

MARGARET MANN SWINDELL
President, Student Government Association

Being president of Student Government is not only a constantly demanding task, but often a difficult and unpleasant one; yet Peggy, with an innate dignity and an unflagging effort to give the most in understanding to every girl has fulfilled it admirably.

ELIZABETH TRAVIS MYATT
Vice President,
Student Government Association

The vice-president is very much a public relations officer, and perhaps the fact that "Liddy Bet" has the gift of getting along with everybody accounts for much of Student Government's success this year.

Betsy is as well known for her subtle humor as for the able job that she, as secretary, does to keep Student Government running smoothly.

ELIZABETH ANN BLUNDON
Secretary,
Student Government Association

OVERNMENT
ERS

It takes a good deal of coolness under fire to contend with a year of "late lights," "slept-through-breakfasts," and town slips, but Mar'et just opens up that Norfleet grin, efficiently sets matters right, and takes it all in her stride.

MARGARET GARY NORFLEET
Chairman, Hall Council

What astonishes everyone is the startling contrast between Woolie's pixie personality and her dignified capability as secretary of the Hall Council.

HELEN WULIGER BOYLE
Secretary, Hall Council

Best luck to my sweet ole' Betsy!! I've enjoyed being with you so much this year, and I sure will miss you. You're one of my very favorites and I hope you won't forget us. Take good care of ole "section B" and that green closet of mine! Let me hear from you some time, hear? Hope to see you some time this summer. Lots of love. "Woolie"

Betsy-Tom handles Day Student matters with a matter-of-fact ease and an exuberant vitality which quickly dispenses with any problem.

BETSY-TOM LAWRENCE
President, Day Students

THE HONOR COUNCIL

The Honor Council, the most respected, yet least encountered organization in school, is the cornerstone of Student Government. Its job is the firm maintenance of basic principles and standards of the school, and to its efficiency and good judgment is due much of what Saint Mary's has come to stand for.

The most active and essential of the Student Government organizations, the Hall Council directs the policies concerning dormitory life. By its capable enforcement of necessary regulations and practical solutions of day-to-day problems, this group makes it possible to place the maintenance of hall discipline almost entirely in the hands of the girls themselves.

THE HALL COUNCIL

THE LEGISLATIVE BODY

The Legislative Body, organized by the students, of the students, and for the students, is Saint Mary's answer to the democratic ideal. Feeling that each girl deserves a voice in the system that regulates her school life, this council receives and considers submitted petitions. It is thus a plastic organ of adjustment to changing times and conditions.

THE SENIOR CLASS

The seniors . . . arrived early and welcomed in the new girls (with what they hoped was suitable dignity) . . . took over their offices with considerable pride and misgivings ("Do you think everyone will laugh when I make my speech?") . . . hall president-ed with stern (they hoped) authority ("One more word, and you get a slip!") . . . felt a little desperate in their first Illiad and Aenead encounters . . . swore that Jean's "Night before Christmas" was the best senior Dance yet . . . gloated over presenting the first May Day in several years ("Doesn't Sande look lovely?") . . . thanked profusely for a perfect Junior-Senior . . . applied prayers and midnight oil to finals ("Does anyone know Milton's dates?") . . . and reached for their precious diplomas through a blur of tears.

ORGANIZATIONS

The Editors

Miss Jones is the guiding hand which directs the over-all policy of the publications and more intimately steers the "Bulletin"; Mrs. Wallace stands behind the "Belles" and STAGE COACH with ready solutions for their unending difficulties.

Shepherding her staff with a firm and able hand, "Fripp" functions like a small-sized dynamo in the week-after-week job of getting out the "Belles."

Martha has not only tackled with diplomacy (and when necessary, force) the job of prodding the literary to productive efforts, but has also manifested proof of her efficiency and discernment in compiling and editing an excellent "Bulletin."

By application of originality, competence, and tenacity, Gene has weathered a year of wrestling with budgets, pictures, and "Where is your copy?" to produce, at last, the STAGE COACH.

you make a great chief. congratulations and best of luck. Ann Little

Owing to Ann's valiant efforts with recalcitrant reporters, gross errors in copy, the demands of the printer, and to Judy's efficient supervision of her circulation staff, the "Belles" miraculously meets its deadline and furnishes news and entertainment twice a month.

CATIONS

The Bulletin

A record of alumnae activities and the voice of Saint Mary's creative talent, the quarterly "Bulletin" is eagerly awaited and well-worn soon after its arrival.

From behind piles of photographs, stacks of copy, and lists of everything from seniors to superlatives, the STAGE COACH staff, with the vigorous aid of Adelaide and her advertising staff, labors to assemble in the yearbook a record of the life and activities of a school year.

LITERARY SOCIETIES

Sigma Lambda

The Sigma Lambda's headed by president Sis Silver, form one of the two societies organized for those interested in the literary field.

E A P

The E.A.P.'s are led by president Margaret Cummings. Both societies have been in the process of reorganization this year.

YWCA Council

The "Y," originally organized for those not of the Episcopal Church, is now open to all. The council, headed by Sara Mell Smith, leads this group in religious activities and plans for visiting lecturers and dinner meetings at the Hut.

Woman's Auxiliary Council

Episcopal girls, led by Cynthia McCaw, comprise the Woman's Auxiliary which has this year not only conducted the traditional Thompson Orphanage Drive, but also sold school blazers. This organization plays a very real part in strengthening the religious atmosphere of the school.

CANDLES 'N' CHORISTERS

Choir

White Robes . . . Borthwick and Hannah . . . "My soul doth magnify the Lord" . . . Angelic faces and voices to match.

Altar Guild

Under the helpful guidance of Miss Bason, a small group of seniors reverently undertakes the task of preparing the chapel for services.

SIGMA'S 'N' SONGSTERS

The Sigma Pi Alpha

The Sigma Pi Alpha with Cynthia McCaw as president of the Saint Mary's chapter is a national honorary language society. It is composed of those girls who have, in their language subject, maintained an average of B+ with no lower than B on other subjects.

The Glee Club

Saint Mary's points with pride to the excellent performances of its Glee Club. These select few, under the direction of Miss Cate, provide the school with the best in choral singing.

GREASE PAINT 'N' SANDALS

Dramatics Club

The stage-struck find a home with Miss Davis and her Dramatics Club. Headed by the president, Violet La Rue, this group has in '46 displayed its talents in "Little Women" and "Twelfth Night."

Orchesis

Coming to the forefront as one of the most popular activities at Saint Mary's, this creative dance group has increased its membership considerably.

DOCS 'N' DAUGHTERS

Doctor's Daughters Club

The Doctors' Daughers, under the supervision of Mrs. Naylor, and Margaret Lee Payne, president, interest themselves in welfare work. Active this year in raising funds for China Relief and provisions for the needy of Raleigh, they have also entertained with their "Father's Banquet" and several parties in the Hut.

Granddaughters Club

Headed by president Lila Spilman and Alumnae Secretary Alice Bell, the Granddaughters Club is composed of second and third generation Saint Mary's.

LINGUISTICS 'N' POLITICS

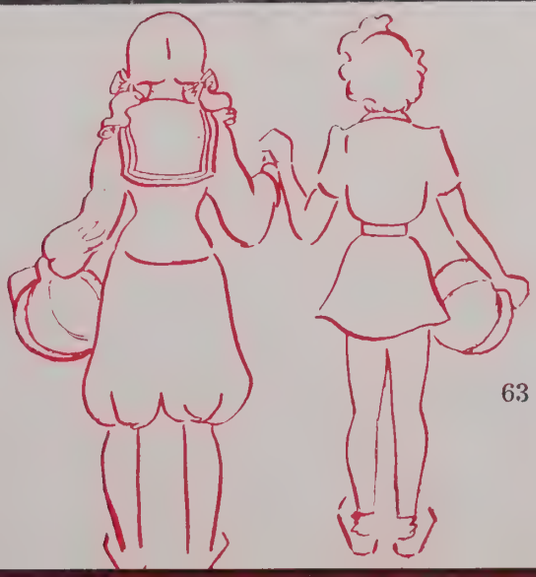
Le Cercle Francais

Under the guidance of Madame Smith with Betty Pierson as president, Le Cercle Francais meets informally once a month with a guest speaker to discuss the French language, customs, and culture.

Political Science Club

This group, directed by Mr. Guess and Betsy Dempsey, is composed of economics, history, sociology, and government students who are interested in broadening their conception of world affairs. At the monthly meetings, guest speakers discuss with the members happenings in the world today.

PRODUCTIONS 'N' PERSONALITIES



ATHLETICS

Mu Officers

SYLVIA GREEN, President

As a bundle of vivacity and enthusiasm, Sybbe vitalizes the Mus into a spirited drive for the plaque.

BARBARA POPE, Vice President

The embodiment of the term "good sport," Barbara lends an efficient hand in the Mu cause.

Mu Cheer Leaders

One of the favorite yells conducted by Moore, Hines, Holland, and Willingham is:

Yea Blue! Yea White!
Come on Mu's, let's fight!

The Athletic Council

Directing the tenor of athletic activities at Saint Mary's, the Sigma and Mu presidents and vice presidents, the president of the Letter Club, Miss Graham, and Mrs. Guess comprise the Athletic Council.

ASSOCIATION

Sigma Officers

BETTY ANNE COOPER, President

Paradoxically cute and capable, Betty Anne leads the Sigma's with persuasive charm and persistent determination.

JEAN STRICKLAND, Vice President

Tall, dark, and handsome Jean is Coop's right-hand man and a valuable pillar of the team.

Sigma Cheer Leaders

Among the cheers led by Cheer Leaders Anderson, O'Keeffe, Pope, and Huson is:

Yea—Sigmas
S—I—G—M—A.
Sigma, Sigma, Sigma
Yea—!

The Letter Club

The athletically inclined gain entrance to the Letter Club by earning an all-star in two major sports. Famed for their reversible circle initiation, the Club sponsors Posture Week and the athletic banquet at which the plaque is awarded.

HOCKEY

During the fall weather the hockey field echoes with the ring of stick against ball and spirited encouragement from the sidelines. In '46, the Mu's defeated the Sigmas in two consecutive games, thereby winning the tournament.

BASKETBALL

"Charging!" calls Miss Graham as the game becomes a little too enthusiastic. The after-Christmas basketball season always brings out the sportswomen in crowds to try for the Sigma and Mu teams and the coveted all-star.

SWIMMING

Proving its superiority in speed and form, the swimming team took high honors in the Inter-Collegiate Play Day.

BADMINTON

Loudly advocated by its adherents, badminton is becoming more and more popular as a campus pastime.

TENNIS

Tennis ranks high among favorite sports, and this year Saint Mary's was hostess for the tennis tournament during the Inter-Collegiate Play Day.

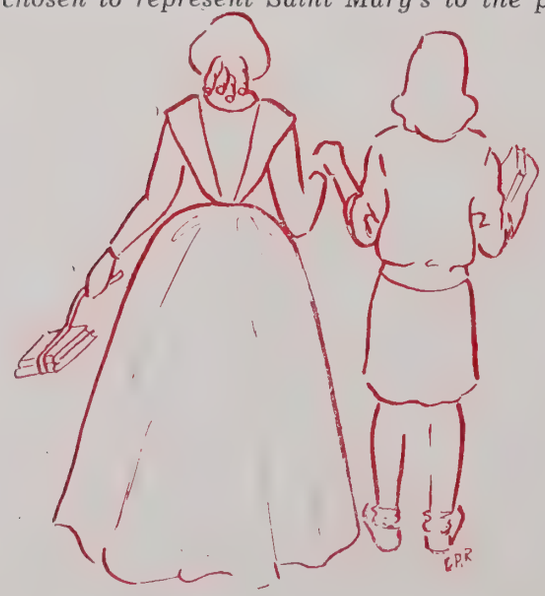
ATHLETIC EVENTS

FEATURES

MARSHALS

Clark, Thorp, Strickland (Chief); Childs, Roberts, E., Ashburn

Add a bit of dignity to a wealth of poise, graciousness, and charm; the result, the girls who were proudly chosen to represent Saint Mary's to the public eye. These, our marshals, lead the way.



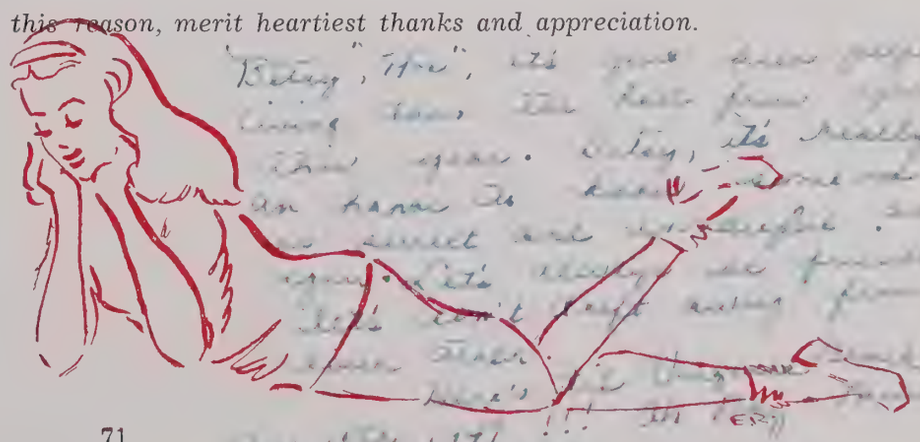
I'm writing here because I'm wearing such a pretty frock. (yours!) We've had fun but there's still more to come. Stay pretty, stay sweet, stay just like you are.

Jane

DANCE MARSHALS

Standing: Carter, Thorp, Hancock, Green, Cummings. Seated: Hines, Smith, Dempsey (Chief); Darden, Linehan, Pratt, Hannah.

From card dances and lead-outs to intermission capers, the dance marshals see that all runs as smoothly as clockwork. These girls, chosen for their good looks, amiability, and efficiency, are untiring in their efforts to make Saint Mary's dances successful, and for this reason, merit heartiest thanks and appreciation.



OUTSTANDING

Peggy Swindell - Ann Jones

It is felt that recognition should be awarded each year to those members of the Senior class who have proven themselves particularly outstanding in leadership, school spirit, and achievements.

GIRLS

Saint Mary's student body picks these eight as deserving of this position of honor.

Gene Rose - Elizabeth Myatt

Dearest Betsy — I couldn't be prouder of our new chief marshal! You'll be a wonderful one — as you have proved already — all I've heard is Betsy, Betsy, Betsy! OUTSTANDING My three years have been wonderful and knowing you has meant more to me than anyway I can say. You're one of my favorites, you know; don't forget me. I don't want to be one of your lost school buddies! Best of luck and all my love — Marie

Martha Conger - Margaret Norfleet

It is felt that recognition should be awarded each year to those members of the Senior class who have proven themselves particularly outstanding in leadership, school spirit, and achievements.

GIRLS

Saint Mary's student body picks these eight as deserving of this position of honor.

Jean Strickland - Jean Roberts

Delight over an additional dance . . . Gene's struggle with decorations . . . difficulties as the newspaper walls tear at every touch . . . the Parlor and hall overflowing with expectant dates . . . flutter of excitement as flowers begin to arrive . . . strains of music from the gym hasten last minute touches . . . "Well, hey, who'd you come with?" . . . "Has anybody seen my stag? I think he's lost!" . . . mad rush for cokes at intermission . . . the leadout . . . AND the climax, the ceiling crashing down not once but twice (who dun it?) . . . the last strains of "Goodnight Sweetheart."

THE STAGE COACH DANCE

THE SENIOR DANCE

Continuous painting in Holt attic to get "Ma in her kerchief" and "Pa in his cap" . . . Roberts spending most of Friday on a ladder stringing up the ceiling . . . "Where did I put my bids?" . . . "May I borrow your gold earrings?" . . . "breaking-est dance that we've had" . . . Dr. Stone in tails . . . Senior officers leading out . . . Amazement as the card dances work smoothly for the first time in recorded history . . . "No, Bill. You see, you're supposed to stand under your name" . . . five minutes to twelve and "Be sure to get here for church tomorrow" or "See you in a minute" for the fortunate.

BUILDERS of DREAMS
VISIONS created by the imagination precede the achievement of any really great accomplishment. The ability to weave the threads of imagination into the finished fabric is equally important.
It has been the privilege of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY to cooperate with the Stage Coach staff in creating their vision into material form.
Such cooperation is one of the "visions" which precede the building of a successful business, and is a part of the working policy of the EDWARDS & BROUGHTON COMPANY.
To those Staffs desiring complete co-operation, we offer unexcelled service.
You, too, may be proud of your annual.

Crow:
the phrase
it's been know-

three years is kinda hard to phrase - especially in the back of the annual - but please know I've loved it all - and you've contributed so much to Sweet Marie's for me remember our both/about trio that first year - Tuddle at the beach - and our business on marriage?! you'll be a credit to Sweet Marie's as chief marshall we'll forever - and I wish like everything I could see her to be "let around" by her - stay as - ir - at -
"cozy" as you are (that term derives why term of affection!)
Hold our favorite hall down until you - ii we'll be back -
My best love -
Congas
